From this survey, we concluded that more than half of the people believe that sports literacy is important and the hurdles that people face are lack of time, information and resources. The features that people want are being implemented in the application. The data collected from the interviews is as follows

INTERVIEW #1

"We at the Sports-pedia Team interviewed many aspiring individuals. This is Josh , an athlete at the local gymkhana. Lets see what he has to say in this matter....."

Welcome, Josh! Thank you for joining me today. I understand you've faced several challenges when it comes to sports knowledge. Can you share some of those problems with us?

Josh: Thank you for having me, Mark! Absolutely, my experience with sports knowledge has been quite a journey. Before I discovered Sports-pedia, I struggled with multiple issues. For starters, I often felt overwhelmed by the sheer volume of information out there. Every sport has its own set of rules, terminologies, and histories, and I found it hard to keep track of them all.

Mark: It sounds like Sportspedia really tailored its offerings to meet your needs. Were there any other problems it helped you address?

Emma: Absolutely. One major issue was staying updated with live sports events. I would often miss out on important games or updates because I didn't know where to look. Sportspedia's live updates feature solved that problem. I can now follow games in real-time, which makes me feel more connected to the sports community.

INTERVIEW #2

"We at the Sports-pedia Team interviewed many aspiring individuals. This is Sophie , a student at IIITD. Lets see what he has to say in this matter....."

Welcome, Sophie! Thanks for joining us today. I understand you've encountered some unique challenges when it comes to sports knowledge. Can you share what those challenges were?

Sophie: Thanks for having me, Jake! Sure, my journey with sports knowledge has been quite rocky. Initially, I had a hard time keeping up with the different sports seasons and schedules. I'd often miss out on games or events because I didn't know when they were happening.

That sounds frustrating! Did you find it difficult to follow specific sports or leagues?

Sophie: Absolutely! I'm a huge fan of baseball, but I also wanted to learn about football and basketball. The problem was that each sport has its own schedule, and trying to keep track of everything was overwhelming. I'd end up confused about which games were on and when.

Jake: That's understandable. Did you try any other resources to help with this before discovering Sports-pedia?

Sophie: Yes, I tried using multiple sports apps and websites, but they were either cluttered with ads or not user-friendly. I would spend more time navigating the app than actually learning about the sports. It was discouraging, and I often ended up giving up.

Refined Problem Understanding

<Elaborate on the proposed solution, its target users, and the specific requirements it would fulfil >

Introduction to the Problem:-

People often face barriers when exploring or pursuing sports. Many lack awareness of various sports, their rules, professional pathways, and relevant events, which creates hurdles in cultivating and sustaining an interest in sports. This issue is exacerbated by limited accessibility and recognition, especially in countries where sports literacy and participation are low.

Background and Context:-

Currently, sports are undervalued as a professional field due to the financial challenges athletes face and the public's limited awareness of how sports operate. This gap hinders people from appreciating an athlete's skill, understanding sports rules, or seeing sports as a viable career.

- Key Statistics:

1. India has only won 41 medals in 25 Summer Olympics since 1900 and none in the Winter Olympics.
2. Sports literacy in India is around 5.56%.
3. Only 57 lakh people in India are directly involved in sports.
4. Sports contribute merely 0.1% to India's GDP.

User Pain Points

1. Lack of access to a wide range of sports.
2. Societal and financial pressures for those pursuing a sports career.
3. Talented youth often forced to quit sports for stable employment.
4. Limited recognition for deserving athletes.

Target Audience

The platform is designed for anyone interested in cultivating an understanding of or deepening their engagement with sports. It serves beginners to enthusiasts, athletes, parents, educators, and even sponsors, providing value at every knowledge level.

Core Objective

To promote sports literacy and foster a genuine interest in various sports, increasing public participation and cultivating an audience that appreciates and supports sports. This platform aims to elevate sports' role in society and build a well-informed audience passionate about various sports.

Background of the Problem and Motivation

Importance

Improving sports literacy will enhance sports quality, attract audiences and investors, and boost India's reputation in sports. It will also reduce barriers for aspiring athletes and improve the physical and mental well-being of a large population.

Inspiration

India's underwhelming performance in international events, such as a rank of 71 at the recent Olympics, highlights the need for accessible platforms to improve public awareness and sports literacy.

Solution Coverage

Our platform, Sportspedia, will address issues of low sports literacy, limited audience for various sports, and lack of recognition for athletes. Through a user-friendly, design-focused interface, it will improve navigation and user engagement, covering the following areas:

1. Sports rules and required equipment for various sports.
2. Daily sports news and updates.
3. Athlete recognition through dedicated sections.
4. Career paths in sports, presented accessibly.
5. Updates on events and tournaments.

Stakeholders

- Sports Enthusiasts: Seeking structured, detailed sports learning resources.
- Aspiring Athletes: In need of career guidance and development opportunities.
- Parents & Guardians: Resources for supporting children's sports interests.
- Educators & Coaches: Tools for delivering engaging sports education.
- General Public: Exploring different sports and learning foundational information.
- Corporate Sponsors: Investors interested in insights on sports industry growth.

Sportspedia Platform Features

Interactive Learning Modules

- Sports Education: Clear explanations on rules, strategies, and equipment.

- Video Tutorials: Step-by-step guides on techniques and strategies.
- Quizzes & Games: Interactive tools to foster engagement and learning.

Personalized Learning Paths

- Tailored Content: Based on user preferences, interests, and skill level.
- Progress Tracking: Users can monitor progress and earn badges or rewards.
- Adaptive Skill Levels: Adjustable difficulty levels, from beginner to advanced.

Community Engagement

- Discussion Boards: Connect users to share insights and questions.
- Competitions & Leaderboards: Encourage friendly competition and engagement.
- Localization: Multi-language support with region-specific content.

Real-Time Sports News & Updates

- Daily News: Updates on events, athlete performances, and results.
- Expert Analysis: Insights into game trends and strategies.
- Notifications: Personalized alerts for favorite sports and events.

Career Guidance in Sports

- Career Pathways: Guidance on training, education, and career opportunities.
- Success Stories: Inspiring athlete stories.
- Networking Resources: Mentorship and community connections.

Events & Tournaments

- Sports Events: Comprehensive information on local and international tournaments, prominently featured on the homepage.

Target Users

1. Sports Enthusiasts: Access to structured learning and sports content.
2. Aspiring Athletes: Career guidance and development resources.
3. Parents & Guardians: Tools for guiding children's sports involvement.
4. Educators & Coaches: Engaging materials for sports education.

5. General Public: Introductory resources for diverse sports.
6. Corporate Sponsors: Insights on sports growth and trends.

Specific Requirements

- Education on Sports Rules and Equipment: Comprehensive explanations.
- News and Updates: Real-time updates on sports events.
- Athlete Recognition: Dedicated sections to celebrate top athletes.
- Career Guidance: Clear pathways and processes.
- Event Information: Regular updates on tournaments and local events.

By providing these features, Sportspedia will create an inclusive, engaging, and informative ecosystem to promote sports literacy, awareness, and participation.
